PETTIBONE WAS FREQUENTLY WITH MISS GULLOW

State Takes Up Nurse's In- fluence and Relation- ship with Pettibone

Following the testimony of Miss Bessie Wright in the Pettibone murder case, on trial at Manchester, Dr. Frank J. Hurley, who was summoned to the Pettibone home and arrived just after her death, was called to the stand. He went over the same ground that Dr. Gardiner had covered on the previous day. Dr. Whitney, state toxicologist, gave the results of his study of the contents of Mrs. Pettibone's stomach, and his chief contribution to the evidence was that he had found half a grain of strychnine sulphate in the stomach and more in the liver and kidneys. He followed closely the testimony of Dr. B. H. Stone in the morning. The defense had tried to indicate that Mrs. Pettibone was suffering from a nervous heart trouble and took "nux vomica" or some other medicine containing strychnine as a relief. But it was testified by Dr. Whitney that some of the poison was found in the liver and kidneys, as well as the stomach.

Mrs. Johanna Westoff, a neighbor who was present after the death gave brief testimony covering some previously given. Cole Bowen, a taxi driver, of Bennington, said he had driven Pettibone and Miss Helen Gullow a trained nurse, to Hoosick Falls on a night in August, 1919, where they spent two hours in a public restaurant. Maurice Rudi, an electrician at an establishment near by the undertaking place where Pettibone worked said that Miss Gullow attended him when he was ill and that he had never seen the girl in Pettibone's company. Michael Fitzgerald, a fire-

BEE STINGS CAUSE BAD AUTO COLLISION

Two Cars in an Accident on the Center Road But No Serious Injuries

The busy bee can make a nuisance of himself as well as furnish the world with honey for the automobile accident in front of George H. Morrill's house above St. Johnsbury City, Wednesday afternoon was caused by a bee stinging the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Tanner of Greenfield, Mass. The Tanners had recently dined with their friends at St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Brown, and had started for Willoughby lake in their Ford coupe.

Everything went all right until the bee entered the car and then everything happened quicker than can be related. The bee crawled up the little fellow's leg and began to get busy, and hearing the boy's screams the father tried to kill the bee. This took his immediate attention from his car and he never noticed that Dr. D. R. Brown was coming down the line in his Buick coupe. The latter had two ladies with him and seeing the Ford car "wobbling" towards him turned his car well out of the road and yelled to the driver to be on his guard. The screams of the boy drowned out Dr. Brown's warning and the Ford car side-swiped the former's car, striking the Lyndonville car with such force that the Ford car was almost completely turned around.

George H. Morrill was at home at the time and heard the two explosions from the bursting of the tires and the crash of the two cars. He hastened down to the scene of the wreck and almost immediately two doctors came along in their cars. The only one injured by the accident was Mrs. Turner, whose arm was slightly bruised by the impact of the cars. She was given immediate attention by

FAIRBANKS A. A. TAKES ORLEANS MEASURE, 11 TO 2

Thormahlen, on Mound for St. J., Fans Fifteen and Allows Three Hits

The Fairbanks A. A. baseball nine defeated the Orleans team on Wednesday afternoon at Orleans in a rather one-sided contest. The score was 11 to 2. Good hitting, fast base running, and wonderful pitching gave the St. Johnsbury team a victory which they well deserved over a team which worked hard in opposition, but was utterly unable to solve the fast ones which Henry Thormahlen sent stinging across the plate.

The left-handed Canadian was at his best, and not only struck out 15 men, but poled out a two-bagger on the first ball pitched to him and sent another into the river which would have been good for a home run had it been 15 feet further to the left. All the St. Johnsbury boys had their eye on the ball, and in the eighth, Bear was forced to exchange positions with first baseman Griffin, who made the best of a bad position. Thirteen hits were gleamed by the local boys, some of them for extra bases, 10 off Bear and 3 off Griffin, while their opponents were able to make but three, all of which Bear secured. It was a Fairbanks day in spite of all the opposition which the team of hardy veterans from Orleans and vicinity could put up.

St. Johnsbury scored in five innings. In the second Thormahlen met the first ball pitched for a two-bagger and went to third on a passed ball a little later. Woods went out, Kennison to Griffin, and Swan hit to third and drawing the throw to first, made it possible for Thormahlen to score. Gormley grounded to first.

In the fourth, Hoernle hit to right, and playing the hit and run game, he started for second as Sullivan hit. He continued to third on Hardy's poor throw in, while Sullivan stole second on the play. Thormahlen lifted a long sacrifice fly to left on which Hoernle scored. Woods hit, scoring Sullivan and took second on the throw in. Swan was hit by a pitched ball, and Gormley advanced them both a base on a grounder to first. Lynch made the third out, Snyder to Griffin.

In the fifth, they came in for two more. Slayton led off with a nice hit, which Connor duplicated. In trying to catch Connor off first, Griffin muffed one, Slayton scoring and Connor going to second. Hoernle hit a high fly to Brennan, and then Sullivan sent another aloft which Brennan likewise nabbed, but on which Connor went to third. Orleans began to throw the ball around again, and the pitcher missed a

"We approve collective bargaining."

"Gross expansion of currency and credits has depreciated the dollar. We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation."

"I can hear the call of conscience an insistent voice for a largely reduced armaments throughout the world."

30 Special Trains Take Throng to Notification Ceremonies— Sounds New Keynote

(By the Associated Press)

MARION, O., July 22.—The Republican campaign attained full speed ahead today with the formal notification here of Warren G. Harding, the parties' nominee for the presidency. The notification ceremonies which brought to Marion most of the big leaders of the party and many thousands of Harding's enthusiasts included an acceptance speech by Senator Harding interpreting the Chicago platform and declaring the principles on which he expects the campaign to be fought out.

The acceptance speech came at the end of a long program in which high pitched enthusiasm ruled the day. Delegation after delegation, with bands playing and colors flying, followed up to the Harding front porch as 30 special trains and thousands of automobiles unloaded their contributions to the notification crowd.

Will H. Hays, the national chairman, was the presiding officer at the notification. The formal notification speech was made by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the notification committee.

A pledge of constitutional government, administered by party and not by individual and based on national rather than world ideals, was given by Senator Harding in formally accepting the Republican nomination for the presidency.

He welcomed a popular referendum on the League of Nations, advocated increased production to cut the high cost of living, pleaded for obliteration of sectional and class conflict, and declared for industrial peace "not
